

Distress After Eating

Nausea between meals, belching, vomiting, flatulence, fits of nervous headache, pain in the stomach, are all symptoms of dyspepsia, and the longer it is neglected the harder it is to cure it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Radically and permanently cure it—strengthen and tone the stomach and other digestive organs for the natural performance of their functions.

Accept no substitutes for Hood's. "I had dyspepsia twenty-five years and took different medicines but got no help until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Have taken four bottles of this medicine and can now eat almost anything, sleep well, have no cramps in my stomach, no burning and no distress." Mrs. WILLIAM G. BARBER, 14 Olney St., Providence, R. I. Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

CHANGED

Decree In Divorce Case,

After Woman Had Married Another Man.

Her Course Disapproved by Court.

Judge Kohler on Tuesday made a change in the decree which gave Clarence Patterson, of this city, a divorce from Jessie Patterson. He stated that owing to an oversight, the decree had been allowed to go on the journal with the additional provision that the woman be restored to her maiden name, Ellsworth. "I did not intend to do this, and was not aware that I had," said the court. He thereupon ordered the decree changed, so that the woman would retain the name of Patterson. This action was taken by the court as the result of the announcement that the young woman had been married again. Her second husband is Fred D. Whiting, of Bedford, Mass. At the time of her marriage to Mr. Whiting, however, she was legally Miss Ellsworth, under the decree of divorce, so the change in the decree will probably not cause them any trouble.

The act of the court in changing the decree was to show his disapproval further of the conduct of the woman. While in Akron she married Mr. Patterson, a young man, in medium circumstances, but later, she began yearning for higher living that could be afforded by her husband. She was the daughter of a Cleveland man who was appointed to represent this government at one of the ports in Venezuela. After living with her husband for a short time, she went to her father in Venezuela. Her husband obtained a divorce, on the grounds of willful absence. "It seems now," said the court, "that she has fallen in with a man who may be able to keep her in higher style, but she should be condemned for having entered into a marriage contract with Mr. Patterson apparently without good faith. There was no reason why she should be restored to her maiden name."

NESTORS.

no quotations from remarks made by the Hon. N. D. Tibbals, who is also, both by reason of years and experience, one of the Nestors of the Bar. It would be wrong to even ask him for his opinion of the young Republican candidate.

There is a story, which is not disputed, to the effect that Judge Anderson has gone to friends of Mr. Bert T. Willis, and told them that he realized that his removing his support from Willis in favor of Barker during the campaign preceding the primary election was a mistake. He is alleged to have excused himself upon the grounds that he didn't believe Mr. Willis had a chance of winning, and that Mr. Barker had. The mistake part appeared later when it was seen that Mr. Willis was developing a lot of strength, which had the Judge stayed with him, would have won the nomination. The friends of Mr. Willis, however, don't take a great deal of stock in the Judge, on account of his deserting their candidate, and for this reason they are not taking a great deal of stock in Mr. Barker.

Chairman W. E. Snyder, of the Democratic Executive committee, predicts a political landslide in Summit county this fall, similar to that of 1922, when everything went Democratic. "The conditions are about the same now," he said. "The people are opposed to the present one-man rule in politics as much as they were opposed to ring-rule in 1922, and they are determined to overthrow it. All the Democrats in the county are awake to their opportunity, and they are being joined by hundreds of their Republican neighbors who are opposed to having the affairs of their party dictated and manipulated by one man. These Republicans claim that the situation this fall is not so much one of stand by the party as it is a bid to them to stand by the clear rule of Judge Anderson, and they mean to show the boss that their patriotism cannot be measured by their devotion to his orders. The harmony which predominated the county convention in June is growing, rather than diminishing, and all the voters in the party are standing valiantly by their candidates."

ing to the Buchtel base ball park for the accommodation of the crowds who will go to Mayor Tom's big tent, on the evening of Oct. 18, to hear him and others discuss the issues of the present campaign in Ohio.

A meeting of the Democratic County Executive committee will be held this evening to take further action in arranging for the meeting. It is likely that the chairman and vice-presidents for the meeting will be selected this evening.

BOUGHT

Building on Howard Street.

For the second time within a year, the M. O'Neill & Co. have found it necessary to secure more room to accommodate their large trade, and have purchased 65 feet on South Howard st. from Mrs. Lizzie A. Kellogg for $90,000. The property was formerly owned by Mrs. Kellogg and her sister, the late Mrs. Rufus Wright. By the terms of Mrs. Wright's will, Mrs. Kellogg came into possession of the entire property. The purchase includes the three-story building on the lot, which is occupied by J. C. Brasenale's five and ten cent store, Broh's clothing store and Kratz's furniture store. The M. O'Neill & Co. will take possession of the building as soon as the leases of the present tenants expire. The purchase of this property gives the M. O'Neill & Co. a frontage of 100 feet on South Howard st. The Kellogg property is just south of the present M. O'Neill store room on South Howard st., at the rear of the Main st. store.

To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by all druggists.

FRIEND

Of Fred McFarlin Called at Morgue.

The remains of Fred McFarlin, who was found dead on the A. B. & C. tracks, north of Cuyahoga Falls, Saturday night, are still at Parks' morgue, and none of the dead man's relatives have been found as yet. Mr. Parks stated Wednesday that a man called at the morgue Tuesday night, and announced that he was a friend of McFarlin, and had known him for years. Mr. Parks, however, neglected to get the name of the visitor.

McFarlin, according to his friend, was more or less a wanderer. He attended fairs all through the fall, and sold cures, etc., for a living. He was at the Summit county fair, and was also in Akron, plying his trade, on the day of the opening of the Republican state campaign. Where he lived is a mystery, though Coroner E. O. Leberman, and the Police, are still investigating. The remains will be interred by the county unless there are developments almost immediately.

Men Marched In the Parade.

Veterans Made a Fine Appearance.

The President Saw a Part of the Procession.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The procession of G. A. R. veterans at the National Encampment began moving at 10 o'clock today. While the ranks were not so well filled as formerly there was no lack of enthusiasm and the veterans made a fine appearance. There were 60,000 men in line.

President Roosevelt reviewed a portion of the parade from his carriage which was driven from the temporary White House down Pennsylvania ave. to Peace monument and back again. He started at 11:15, being carried out of the house in a wicker hospital chair. He was made comfortable in the carriage, resting his back on a pneumatic cushion. His injured leg was propped up on a foot stool. He enjoyed the outing very much and was enthusiastically cheered.

There is a merry contest on for the honor of entertaining the next encampment of the G. A. R. with San Francisco, Atlantic City, Saratoga and Pittsburg in the running. At present the odds seem to be in favor of the Pacific coast metropolis.

MUCH SNOW

Where Mr. and Mrs. Corson Will Spend the Winter.

A letter from Mr. H. C. Corson, formerly of Akron, states that he and Mrs. Corson plan to spend the winter at their cottage near Cape Breton, Nova Scotia. Mr. and Mrs. Corson are greatly loved by the people in the vicinity of their home. Some time ago Mr. Corson built for them a tidy chapel at his own expense.

Natural Anxiety.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. Its attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquefies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, cold, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. F. S. McMahon, Hampton, Ga.: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal."

Credit Gives You The Right Dress

They were drilling some new members of the militia at the Cleveland Armory the other night and among the number was a bright young Irishman who came from good old fighting and joking stock. He did not know much about discipline—in fact if he couldn't talk he'd literally explode. The officer in command was very severe with him and called him down several times.

He finally kept still till the command was given, "Right dress!" This broke him all up, and he broke the company all up by saying, "Captain, that's all right; but how in thunder is a man going to get the right dress when his income is only $8 or $9 a week, and he has a family to dress and support?"

That is what is troubling a great many men and women in Akron, whose incomes are so small that it is hard to get together enough to get the right dress and get it when the season commences. They are men and women who have not called at the New Credit Store and learned its methods.

Have a little faith in us; come in and tell us what you want and you can rest assured we have it and at the right prices and right terms.

Suit Against Contractors For Heavy Damages.

The jury in the case of David Heckman vs. Mary C. Baughman returned a verdict for the defendant. The parties to the suit live at Barborton, and the action was to collect $21 claimed for groceries sold by the plaintiff to the defendant, during the pendency of a suit commenced by her against her husband for divorce. The plaintiff claimed that Mrs. Baughman had told him to charge the groceries to her. However, the court instructed the jury to find for the defendant, unless it was shown that Mrs. Baughman had entered into a contract to pay for the goods, explaining further that until a decree of divorce is granted, a husband is obliged to provide for his wife.

WANTS HEAVY DAMAGES.
August Frank has sued Geo. W. Carmichael & Co. for damages amounting to $15,000. He alleges that he was in the employ of the People's Hard Rubber Co., while its plant was being completed by the defendant, and that while working in one of the rooms, a plank was negligently allowed by the defendant to fall from the story above, injuring him so badly that he is permanently unable to work.

ACTIONS FOR DIVORCE.
Blanche Cuyler asks for separation from Edward Cuyler, upon the alleged grounds of drunkenness and gross neglect. She also asks for restoration of her maiden name, Williams. They were married in 1895. Another action is that of Sophia French vs. Nathaniel M. French. They were married in 1895. She accuses him of gross neglect. Upon the alleged grounds of willful absence, Kate F. Wallace has begun an action for divorce against Joseph E. Wallace.

SUIT TO COLLECT.
Frank Hedeman has sued Rothschilds Bros., to collect $230, claimed as compensation for the storage of a number of whiskey barrels.

EXEMPLARY

Damages Will Figure In Suit Brought Today.

In Common Pleas court last Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Wm. McCourt sued the N. O. T. Co. for $2,000 damages. About two months ago Mr. McCourt's wagon was struck by a Main st. car at the "Barges at Intersection." The horse was killed, wagon damaged and Mr. McCourt was injured. It is claimed in the petition that the car was running at a reckless and unlawful speed, which makes it a case for exemplary damages. Grant & Steber represent the plaintiff.

DEATH.

KEARNS.—Mrs. Margaret Kearns, aged 65 years, died Tuesday morning of stomach trouble, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John McGuire, 514 Grant st. The funeral will be held at St. Vincent's church, Friday at 9 a. m. Interment in St. Vincent's cemetery.

BEAUTIFUL

Describes "York State Folks."

"The Missouri Girl" closes its engagement at the Grand tonight. It is a good play, well put on and has done a good business here.

One of the largest attractions booked this season for the Grand is the wonderfully successful melodrama, "Old Arkansaw," the latest from the prolific pen of Fred Raymond. This author's name attached to a play is enough to insure a first-class vehicle for the artists to display their talents to advantage.

The piece is melodramatic, with a liberal sprinkling of comedy. Mr. Raymond's characters are always pleasing and generally differ from those usually seen on the stage. In "Old Arkansaw," he has taken most of his characters from life, having spent the greater part of one summer in the Ozark mountains for no other purpose than to perfect his knowledge of the ways, actions and dialects of the backwoods people of Arkansas. This play will appear here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week with daily matinees.

What promises to be one of the great theatrical events of this season is the engagement of "York State Folks" which comes to the Colonial theatre this evening.

This popular and beautiful pastoral play was presented here last season and it will be remembered as scoring a positive success and was talked about for days and weeks. It is eminently clean, wholesome and elevating, and is full of intense human interest. The people whom you meet in "York State Folks" are natural and you feel as if you had met before. This probably accounts for the indelible charm which the drama has for those who witness it. It appeals to even the most blasé like the scent of apple blossoms, the odor of new mown hay, the twitter of the bird in the grove and the bubbling brook. It takes the bad taste of such plays as "Zaza" and other abominations from one's mouth, shows the predominant goodness of mankind in general. In this it preaches a sermon which elevates the stage in the eyes of those who have found just cause for adverse criticism.

An exceptionally clever company, sensational situations, elaborate mechanical effects, and a strong comedy interest are said to be the distinguishing features of "Lost River," which comes to the Colonial theatre tomorrow evening.

The pleasant thing about Denman Thompson and Geo. W. Ryer's "Our New Minister" which made so great a hit here last season, and which will be seen again at the Colonial Friday night, is the almost uniform good nature of all the characters.

BADLY HURT.

Grover Cleveland Baumann, 10 years old was seriously injured Sunday morning by running against a steam heater in front of Ponchot Hunsicker & Co.'s store, which fell over upon him. His leg was bruised, the knee bone badly hurt. Dr. E. A. Montengoli took the lad to his home, 128 Euclid ave. It has been found necessary to put the injured knee in a plaster cast. The boy is a step son of Mr. B. F. Davis.

PAIN

And Grief Are Ended.

Mrs. William F. Gayer died at her home, 308 Summer st., Wednesday at 11:15, of cancer. She had been ill a long time, and although the news of her death comes as a shock to her many friends, it was known for months that there was no hope of her recovery. Early in the past summer Mrs. Gayer was taken seriously ill, and the shock she sustained at the time of the death of her daughter, Miss Ida Gayer, Aug. 21, hastened the end. Mrs. Gayer was born in Coventry township, 52 years ago, but had resided in Akron for many years. Her husband, ex-Councilman Wm. F. Gayer, and her son, Fred W. Gayer, survive her. Funeral services will be held at the residence, Saturday at 2 p. m. Interment in Mt. Peace.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Haupt have returned from a two weeks' visit in the East.

This evening, at 8 o'clock, there will be a reception to Rev. and Mrs. Clark Crawford, in the parlors of the First M. E. church. Everyone welcome.

Mr. O. C. Barber left Tuesday night for California. It is stated that he will combine business with pleasure and will endeavor to take things as easy as possible while he is away. The length of time he will be gone is not known.

Mr. David Goodrich, of Mexico City, Mex., is in Akron visiting his brother, Mr. C. C. Goodrich. Mr. Goodrich was formerly well known as a college athlete and was a lieutenant in the Rough Riders during the War with Spain.

Neighbors and friends of J. S. McConnell, to the number of 85, surprised him Tuesday night at his residence, 101 Water st. They gathered at the house while Mr. McConnell was away, and when he returned the surprise was complete. Cards and sociability occupied the evening. A handsome rocking chair was presented the host. Ladies of Tip Top circle and friends to the number of 28 were very pleasantly entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. S. T. Cunningham, on West Center st. The hostesses were Mrs. Anna Falor, Mrs. Mattie McFarland, Mrs. Lizzie Cochran and Mrs. Stark. The evening was spent at progressive pedro. The prize winners were, Mrs. Warren, first prize; Mrs. Clough, second prize; Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Hamlin were consoled. Mrs. Hamlin entertained with piano selections. A dainty lunch was served.
